Presenting

Kerala - Gods Own Country

Top places to visit in Alleppey

It is not important to count the reasons because of which Kerala Tourism has earned the tagline of God's own country. The culture, the varying landscapes, the unique festivals are few of the factors that bring travellers to Kerala over and over again. Cochin, Munnar, Wayanad, Vagamon, Palakkad are just a few of the places belonging to this beautiful state. But the name that is highly recognized and probably is the most beautiful will be none other than the places to visit in Alleppey.

Known as the 'Venice of the East' Alleppey Tourism offers sights of lush green villages, the tranquil backwaters and the cinematic beauty of the houseboats in Kerala travelling through Mararikulam Beachugh automatically comes to the mind. But do you know that Alleppey is way more than that

Here are some of the best places to visit in Alleppey –

1. The Alleppey Backwater

Among all the places to visit in Alleppey, the backwaters are the most beautiful. The setting seems to have come straight out of a fairy tale. Like the chapters talking about babbling brooks and the paradise-like beauty surrounding it, Alleppey backwaters come with a similar charm.

There are a number of activities that you can take part in during the Alleppey sightseeing of the backwaters –

- Houseboat ride
- Shikhara Ride
- Kayaking
- Village walking tour
- Local food tours

Most of the travellers prefer staying around the backwaters and wake up to the golden sunrise over the river. Travellers love Alleppey houseboat packages to experience the backwater life in its truest sense.
