

Namaskar !!!

Welcome to Incredible Country... India!!!

Presenting

Kerala - Gods Own Country

9 Stunning Places To Visit In Munnar

Often called as one of the best hill stations of the country, Munnar has huge tea plantations, hilly terrains and fascinating flora and fauna which can make anyone fall in love with this hill station. There are so many things to do in Munnar that a week's holiday will also be insufficient. The best time to visit Munnar is from June to September and for monsoon lovers, Munnar is the best place to go for your monsoon vacation. Munnar has always been the cherry on the cake for Kerala tourism. Among the tourist places in South India, Munnar is one of the most serene hill stations that attracts people from all over the country. Rated as one of the most peaceful locations to spend a perfect vacation, Munnar is a dream for most of the Indians. Also located in the God's Own Country, Kerala, Munnar is a beauty that cannot be described in mere words. The long stretches of tea plantations amidst the fog and wonderful scenic backgrounds, is an experience of its kind. Hence, here is the list of the best places to visit in Munnar.

1. Make your own tea – Tata Tea Museum

Located at distance of about 12 km from Munnar at Nallathanni Estate, Tata Tea Museum is a popular tourist spot in Munnar. Munnar is home to the World's Best Tea Estates and Tata Tea is among one of them. Tata Tea is also the world's second largest manufacturer and distributor of tea. It is also known as Kannan Devan Tea Museum. A visit to this museum will make you familiar with details about the production of tea. And yes, tea-lovers can also taste the different varieties of tea. This is one of the best tea estates to experience the best of Munnar, alongside some stunning views from the place where it is located. It is one of the best places to visit in Munnar. The visiting charges for the place are- Adults: Rs.75 and Children: Rs. 35; Camera: Rs.20; Tea Tasting: Rs.10

- Distance from the airport: It is approximately 121-122 km away from the Cochin International Airport.

- Best Time to Visit: December to February is the best time to visit.
- Tripadvisor rating: 4/5

2. Cycling at Blossom Park

Covering around 16 acres, Blossom Park is located at a short distance of 3 km from Munnar. The park is situated close to Pallivasal Hydro Electric Project. The rare species of flowers make this place worth visiting. One can also do cycling, roller-skating and boating in the park. Visitors can also enjoy the camp fire along with the music playing in the background. The best time to visit this park is from December to February to enjoy the mesmerizing beauty of the natural scenic beauty. The beautiful flowers and lush-green grass is the perfect place to hone your photography skills and all these factors make Blossom Park one of the best places to visit in Munnar. Among all the Munnar places, the Blossom Park is one of the best places to see in Munnar, as it gives you a glimpse of the natural beauty that Kerala is.

- Distance from the airport: It is approximately 107-108 km away from the Cochin International Airport.
- Best Time to Visit: December to February is the best time to visit.
- Tripadvisor rating: 3.5/5

3. Kolukkumalai Tea Estate – One of the recommended places to visit in Munnar for tea-lovers

So, you cannot live without tea? Munnar is your place. It is a home for tea-lovers. Known as the highest tea plantations in the world, Kolukkumalai Tea Estate is renowned for its different flavours of tea. Tourists can taste the different flavours of tea and can also buy the fresh tea from the factory outlets. One can also see the splendid view of Kodaikanal and sunset from Kolukkumalai Tea Estate.

- Distance from the airport: It is approximately 132-133 km away from the Cochin International Airport.
- Best Time to Visit: Sunset is the best time to visit.
- Tripadvisor rating: 4.5/5

4. Take a stroll at Pothamedu view point

Located at a distance of 6 km from Munnar, Pothamedu View Point is full of tea, coffee and cardamom plantations. Pothamedu is covered with hills and green mountains. For trekkers and hikers, this is the perfect place for pumping up your adrenaline rush. One of the best places to visit in Munnar, Pothamedu View Point is an excellent place to relax or for going on a stroll.

- Distance from the airport: It is approximately 108-109 km away from the Cochin International Airport.
- Best Time to Visit: The view from this point at the time of sunsets is perfect.
- Tripadvisor rating: 4/5
-

5. Attukal Waterfalls

Nestled between Munnar and Pallivasal, Attukal Waterfalls is famous for its scenic beauty and it attracts the tourists from all over the world. It is just at a distance of 2 km from Munnar. Surrounded by the beautiful hills and lush green mountains, Attukal Waterfalls is one of the best places to visit in Munnar. Tourists have to cross the narrow wooden bridge to reach the waterfall.

- Distance from the airport: It is approximately 235-236 km away from the Cochin International Airport.
- Best Time to Visit: Monsoons would be an ideal time to visit the falls.
- Tripadvisor rating: 4/5

6. Sit around and enjoy the beauty of Top Station

Located at a height of 1700 m above the sea level, Top Station is the highest point in Munnar. Located on Kannan Devan Hills, one can view the tea valleys, rare species of Neelakurinji plants from Top Station. One cannot miss the breathtaking view of the Western Ghats and the valley of Theni from the Top station.

- Distance from the airport: It is approximately 144-145 km away from the Cochin International Airport.
- Best Time to Visit: Winters would be an ideal time to visit the peak.
- Tripadvisor rating: 4/5

7. Have fun at Mattupetty Dam and Indo Swiss Dairy Farm

Located at a distance of 12 km from Munnar, Mattupetty Dam is known for its beauty and weather. Visitors can enjoy a boat ride in the lake of dam and also indulge in various activities. . Visiting an Indo Swiss Dairy Farm should be on your itinerary. It is a farm where the new varieties of high yielding cattle are developed scientifically. You will require prior permission to enter the premises and only three out of eleven cattle sheds are open for the visitors. So, make sure you have all the required permits before you reach the farm.

- Distance from the airport: It is approximately 120-121 km away from the Cochin International Airport.
- Best Time to Visit: Winters would be an ideal time to visit this place.
- Tripadvisor rating: 3.5/5

8. Catch a glimpse of Nilgiri Tahr in Eravikulam National Park

Known as a home of rare species of Nilgiri Tahr, Eravikulam National Park is located at a distance of 15 km from Munnar. Spreading over the area of 97 sq.km, Eravikulam National Park has number of species of sambar deer, jackals, Indian bisons and a variety of mongoose. It is also declared as the UNESCO World Heritage Site. Nilgiri Tahr is one of the most rarest and endangered species and Eravikulam has 750 of it. The uniqueness of this national park is that you can explore it on your foot and not by jeep safari. September to November and from April to June is the best time to visit Eravikulam National Park.

- Distance from the airport: It is approximately 121-122 km away from the Cochin International Airport.
- Best Time to Visit: September to November and April to June is the best time to visit this place.
- Tripadvisor rating: 4/5

9. Explore the Anamudi Peak inside Eravikulam National Park

Located at a height of 2695 m, Anamudi peak is the tallest peak in South India. Anamudi Peak is situated inside the Eravikulam National Park. It is popularly known as the 'Himalaya of the South'. Trekkers can find the trekking facilities available here. Special permission is required from the Forest Department to walk above 2 km from the foothills. So, if you are planning trekking here, make sure you have the required permissions. Anamudi Peak is one of the best places to visit in Munnar.

Thanks & Regards

Aji Mathew
9633303788

For Bookings

Mail id : mail@travelcorz.com & bookings@travelcorz.com

Mob 1: +91 9633303788
Mob 2: +91 8943887111
Mob 3: +91 8943887222
Mob 4: +91 8943887333